About ZEV LIX

ZEV LIX brings automated crypto trading, investment plans and referral programs together in one digital space.

The platform executes trades through the ZEV LIX AI Bot, which analyzes market data and carries out trades automatically.

In the personal account, users can view their balance, investments, rewards and transaction history, and use tools to track the activity of their referral network.

The platform offers six investment plans, a multi-level referral system, leadership ranks and the Bounty Program — many ways to take part.

Project launch date: September 26, 2026

Our Approach

Transparency and Simplicity

We work to explain our features clearly, share useful updates and keep access to essential information simple.

Continuous Progress

ZEVLIX is just getting started. We aim to earn trust through steady activity and consistent progress.
